Our Service Standard

Clear Scope

Early agreement on the ask, the deliverables, and the assumptions.

Useful Brevity

Concise where concision serves the matter, detailed where detail is required.

Proactive Communication

Updates at decision points, not only when asked.

Precise Language

Drafting calibrated to the court, the client, and the outcome required.

Disciplined Confidentiality

Information shared strictly on a professional need-to-know basis.

An Actionable Deliverable

The engagement ends once the next step is clear.

Turki AlNaif is the founder and managing partner of Turki AlNaif & Partners, a law firm based in Riyadh.

A law graduate, he has advised a number of companies and is an accredited expert on the Ministry of Justice's "Khebra" platform, in addition to his accreditation as an arbitrator and a licensed franchise broker.

His experience spans corporate advisory work and litigation in a number of notable cases, including large estate matters, alongside a focus on commercial disputes, arbitration, and contractual relationships.

His professional approach rests on understanding the context of the matter and the client's objectives, and establishing the legal position, risks, and options before moving to drafting, negotiation, or litigation.
